- Ref:-1. Circular No. G. 24011/6/2014 - UPA(FTS 10625) dt 17.11.2015 of the GoI, MA&UPA, New Delhi.
2. Circular No. G. 24011/6/2014 - UPA(FTS 10625) dt 05.02.2016 of the GoI, MA&UPA, New Delhi.
3. Circular No. G. 24011/6/2014 - UPA(FTS 10625) dt 10.05.2016 of the Director, GoI, MA&UPA, New Delhi.

In the references cited, Government of India has issued instructions to implement Direct Benefit Transfer (DBT) initiatives under various components of DAY-NULM under which direct transfer of cash benefits to beneficiaries is involved.

In this connection, I request you to open separate bank account for DAY NULM in ICICI bank and transfer the balance funds available under DAY NULM to the new ICICI bank account so as to implement PFMS through ICICI bank.

Yours Faithfully

Mission Director
